

Professor Bruce Pussell
Member, joined 28 May 1974
ANZSN Councillor 1990-1994; Honorary Executive Officer 1993-1994

Postgraduate training at Hammersmith Hospital London and Royal Postgraduate Medical School, University of London under Keith Peters 1976-1980. Awarded PhD in Immunology 1982, University of London, UK (now Imperial College, London).

Royal Australian College of Physicians: MRACP 1974, FRACP 1978

Graduate Certificate in Health Services Management, UNSW, Sydney 2002

Present Appointments

- Honorary Consultant, Department of Nephrology at the Prince of Wales Hospital, Sydney.
- Professor of Medicine, Conjoint with the University of New South Wales, Prince of Wales Hospital Clinical School.
- Retired from Clinical Practice 2018.

Past Appointments:

- Director of Renal Medicine, Wollongong Hospital, conjoint with Prince Henry Hospital: 1980-1999
- Senior Staff Specialist, Department of Nephrology, Prince Henry and Prince of Wales Hospital: 1980–2015 & 2017-18 (as Locum).
- Director of Nephrology, Prince of Wales Hospital: 2008 – 2013.
- Director of Renal Services, South Eastern Sydney and Illawarra Health Service 2007 – 2011.
- Director of Transplantation, East Coast Renal Transplant Service 2001 – 2013.
- Chair Division of Medical Specialties for SESIAHS 2000 - 2006).
- Chairman, Division of Medicine, Prince of Wales Hospital 2004 – 2007.
- Medical Co-director Programme of Oncology, Emergency and Medicine, Prince of Wales Hospital 2004 – 2007.